Introduction

International Nurses Day is celebrated every year on 12 May, the birth anniversary of Florence Nightingale, the pioneer of modern nursing. This day recognizes the dedication, compassion, and vital role of nurses in the healthcare system worldwide. The theme for 2025 highlights the importance of supporting nurses to build stronger and healthier communities.

Objectives of the Program

- To honor and appreciate the contribution of nurses.
- To create awareness about the importance of nursing in healthcare.
- To motivate nursing students and staff for professional growth.
- To emphasize the need for mental and physical well-being of nurses.

Program Details

The program started at 10 AM with a warm welcome to the chief guest, principal, faculty members, and students. The function began with a lamp lighting ceremony followed by a prayer song.

The principal addressed the gathering and spoke about the dedication and hard work of nurses. The chief guest delivered an inspiring speech focusing on the 2025 theme and encouraged nurses to prioritize self-care while serving patients.
